

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

OPERATIONAL SERVICES

Student Welfare - Accidents and Injuries

Possible Health Threatening Incidents (head injuries, asthma attacks, diabetes, bee stings, etc.)

When a possible health-threatening incident occurs with a student, the office personnel shall contact the paramedics immediately and then the parents. The paramedics upon their arrival will make a determination of whether the student should be transported to the hospital.

ADOPTED: December 6, 1994

REVIEWED: September 19, 2006

REVIEWED: June 29, 2009, July 13, 2010, September 11, 2013