Board of Education Meeting Highlights

December 17, 2019

Morton Education and Administration Center

- ◆ Superintendent's Report:
 - ⇒ Teaching and Learning Council (formerly CAC) recently met and discussed vision of student success; and e-learning—a plan will be brought to the board in January. E-learning days would only be used if taking an emergency day would effect timing of finals at the end of the year.
 - ⇒ Threat Assessment Team—a formal procedure will be written and a team will be formed by the end of February.
 - ⇒ Mrs. Ripka will be presenting on MHS Career Readiness to the Economic Development Council and Rotary Club.
- ◆ Dr. Beaty announced that Board Member Tom Neeley was recently elected President of the Illinois Association of School Boards.
- ◆ Discussion Item
 - ◇ 15 Year Facilities Plan—Board members discussed scheduled maintenance projects for 2020 including Brown—resurfacing parking lots and playground; Jefferson—roofing and replacement of some interior doors; Lincoln—roofing; High School—roofing ; weight room/art room—reconfigure; remodel faculty lounge and conference room into STEM classrooms.
- ◆ Action Items Approved:
 - ◇ 2019 Levy Resolution
 - ◇ MJHS Phase 2 bids and alternate bids
